Why are you giving up your colony?

I hereby understand and accept as the shipper that by sending this colony to Ant Antics UK I knowingly relinquish ownership of them and pass it to Ant Antics. Any items I send with the colony will not be returned to me. I can change my mind at any time in the next 3 (three) weeks and can retrieve my colony by paying the boarding fees and return shipping. In this case Ant Antics accepts no live arrival conditions or obligations in their survivability whilst in their care.
